Dunfermline Carnegie Rotary Club Halloween Pub Quiz

Dunfermline Carnegie Rotary Club is organising a Halloween Quiz on 31st October at Dunfermline's Pitreavie Golf Club. This quizzical fright night is an aid of Rotary Charities. The prime one being the local Seal Association, who will be presented with a cheque on the night, based on Dunfermline Carnegie Rotary Club's fund raising activities.

The Seal Association is a small local charity in Dunfermline that has worked for over 30 years with children and young people who are disadvantaged as a result of social circumstances or disability. Seal offers an environment with structured discussions, games and activities designed to enhance "character strengths", such as confidence, optimism, mindfulness, emotional balance, creativity and positive relationships.
